

fashionette

DESIGNERTASCHEN ONLINE

fashionette – Designer handbags are our passion. We offer more than 4.000 handbags and accessories which are carefully selected and composed by our experienced style experts. In order for our customers to enjoy a great shopping experience, our international development teams, which are based in two European countries (Duesseldorf, Malaga), are responsible for ensuring a smooth operation and the continuous improvement of our eCommerce platform for currently 8 countries. Herby we rely on agile methods, cross-functional teams, clean code, microservices and a strong test automation. We are successfully on the market since 2008 and are growing continuously, both national and international.

Do you want to grow with us? Than join our team in Duesseldorf as

Product Owner (m/f/d)

Your Responsibilities

Together with our other Product Owner, you are responsible for the product and sprint backlog. You will clarify requirements with business departments and align the acceptance criteria for features with the respective stakeholders.

Together with the Scrum teams, you will define the solution for features and assure the optimal output for the business. You are also the contact person for the teams in case of further questions during the implementation. You will be responsible to further improve features and therefore support the complete life-cycle of features. Beside your work with the Scrum teams, you'll also prepare and conduct the prioritization meetings with the product management team. On a regular base, you provide feedback on the progress of initiatives to the stakeholders and management team.

Your Qualifications

- › You have 2-3 years professional work experience as a Product Owner
- › Experience with SCRUM
- › Excellent knowledge in eCommerce processes
- › Strong analytical skills
- › Strong communication skills and sense of responsibility
- › Ideally you are a certified product owner (e.g. CPO)
- › Knowledge about current web technologies
- › Knowledge in Atlassian tools is an advantage
- › You are willing to work in a distributed team
- › In our international company we expect very good knowledge of both German and English

Our Offer

Welcome in our centralized office near the tram stop "Schlüterstraße / Arbeitsagentur" – You can reach us in just 10 minutes from the terminal station or only 5 minutes from the train station Wehrhahn. Your first impression: modern furnishing with open and bright offices for small teams with up to 4 employees. Your second impression: we are all on a first name basis. Your third impression: you have a great view of the Duesseldorf skyline from our rooftop terrace - for example when we get together for a joined BBQ.

What makes us even more special as an employer? Besides a company pension we also offer numerous training opportunities or the opportunity to visit relevant exhibitions/fair trades. Our philosophy also includes flat hierarchies and comprehensive transparency across all levels – once a month we place all the cards on the table: achievements, problems, concrete numbers. And here some more benefits, which will convince you:

Beverage, Ice and Muesli flat rate | regular massages | football table, X-Box und table tennis | regular Team-Events and company parties | holiday yon Carnival Monday | individual office design + 50 € from us for the personal decoration of your desk | employee discount for most of our handbags

Questions in advance and your application (including salary expectations and earliest possible starting date) reach us best by e-mail - jobs@fashionette.de. Your contact persons Maernet Secchi and Nicole Fountain are looking forward to your message.

Apply Now

fashionette GmbH | Grafenberger Allee 295 | 40237 Düsseldorf
fashionette.de | facebook.com/fashionette | instagram.com/fashionette.de

